A botanical illustration featuring several different plant species. On the left, a tall, thin stem with a large, dark, textured seed head at the top. Next to it, a stem with several green, serrated leaves. In the center, a stem with a small, dark, textured seed head. To the right of that, a stem with a large, yellow, textured seed head. Further right, a stem with several green, pointed leaves. On the far right, a stem with several green, serrated leaves. A dark gray rectangular box is centered horizontally across the middle of the image, containing the text 'THANK YOU!' in white, bold, uppercase letters.

THANK YOU!
